

WASHINGTON DAILY
NEWS

JUL 6 1957

Hill Asks CIA Report on Chinese H-Bomb

The Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee has asked the CIA and other interested agencies to report next week on the capabilities of the hydrogen bomb tested recently by Red China.

Richard M. Helms, CIA director, is tentatively scheduled to testify next Thursday at a closed committee session. Spokesmen for the Pentagon and the Atomic Energy Commission also have been asked to appear. (UPI)